The Watchmen

Chapter 1: Blood Curdling Scream

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Recognize Truth

- A. God's watchmen know the importance of discerning the 'Word of the Lord' that is forever settled in heaven. God's Word is the pure, eternal, incorruptible, living truth that is not to be added to, but obeyed and proclaimed for the way of salvation.
- B. Jesus is the Word become flesh which is why the Word is alive and powerful, able to pierce and discern the intent of the heart, convict the conscience, convert the soul, give life and sanctify those who believe. God's Word never changes because God never changes. Jesus is both God and the 'Word made flesh.'
- C. Watchmen greatly desire to be used by God and therefore train themselves to recognize truth through Bible reading, study, prayer and obedience. They are prepared with pure truth to speak skillfully and accurately into the lives of those they meet. Their great desire is to strengthen the saved and offer salvation to the lost.

2. Watchmen Recognize Falsehoods

- A. False teachings can come through some of the most respected and sincere religious people we know. The apostles warned that false teachers will arise from and be among believers. Whenever a person is esteemed in our eyes, they have the potential to mislead us because we have vested them with our trust. We cannot recognize untruth until we know the truth.
- B. God provides the church with the gifts of pastors and teachers but they must speak according to the truth of His Word and presents His character and gospel accurately. We must keep our guards up to filter every teaching through the Word of God. Deceivers can be found in institutions of learning, places of worship, the media, printed materials, and even in our circle of family and friends.
- C. Watchmen know that Satan is the great deceiver who sends his emissaries into the world with lies wrapped in garments of truth. False teachers use Biblical words that appear fine on the outside, but on the inside have hidden meanings assigned to them. The result is the Word is redefined verse by verse into a philosophy or tradition of men. The unsuspecting, who are captured by these false explanations learn, live out of and defend these twisted and nuanced meanings as 'truth.' This results in a completely different belief system that is communicated and embraced using the very words of scripture.
- D. The Holy Spirit is ultimately our teacher who promises to guide us into all truth. He will never lead us to perceive the Word in ways that violate the character of God or the gospel of salvation. We test the teachings of every man to see if they will carry us away from the Spirit of truth and into the spirit of bondage or strange teachings.
- E. False teachings, that reinterpret the meaning of scripture, create changes in how we understand and approach God. In short, when the truth of God's Word is twisted through false teachings, God's character and gospel are inevitably warped as well. False teachings hamper evangelism because the message of salvation is changed, and the character of God is altered. The lost cannot be forgiven by a different Jesus, nor saved through a different gospel.
- F. Watchmen prepare to battle for truth by accurately understanding the scripture, casting down every imagination that exalts itself above truth, putting on the full armor of God to stand their ground, and testing the spirit of a teaching to see if it aligns with the Spirit of God. A good prayer to pray is that God will not let you be deceived so that you will not deceive others.

3. The Qualities of a Watchman

- A. The position of watchman is best served by a diligent, trustworthy, alert, focused, dependable, honest, principled, honorable, resolute and skilled person who also possesses integrity, accurate sight and a caring heart. These qualities should characterize every believer as they grow in Christ. If they aren't present in our lives, we can repent from getting off track and get back on the narrow road to represent Jesus well.
- B. God warns the watchman that if he fails to warn wicked men to turn from their evil ways, then their blood will be upon his head. This warning keeps the watchman from abusing his post. He can't be negligent, lazy, fearful of persecution, a man pleaser, use his position for personal gain, take bribes, minimize the warning or be tempted not to warn those he dislikes. He is to warn full strength because the judgment of God will be full strength.

4. Watchmen Warn "Trouble's Coming"

- A. The house of Israel needed strong warnings that although they were God's chosen nation, those who would not turn from their evil ways would die in their iniquity. Their attitude of entitlement to salvation, coupled with their privileged position as the custodians of God's sacred things, had deadened their fear of sin and judgment. God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked and wants men to repent from their sin and turn to Him. Watchmen warn men who are living in sin and outside of God's mercy to do the same today.
- B. Watchmen know that judgment for the lost will be terrifying and do not want anyone standing before God as His enemy who will be condemned to eternal torment for rejecting their only Advocate and Sin Bearer, Jesus Christ. When the lost die, they continue to consciously exist either alive in heaven or alive in hell.
- C. Watchmen share their faith through conversation, rather than through a presentation. Using the lost person's name during the discussion highlights their importance. Watchmen move discussions from the temporal to the eternal by asking simple questions about God, sin, Jesus, eternity and judgment. When watchmen see all men through the eyes of God, their station in life begins to disappear. They boldly share their faith with the famous, those of reputation, as well as those lesser known. Their concern is for any lost sinner on the way to a fiery eternity.

5. The Watchman's Challenge

- A. When God repeats a command, as he did to Ezekiel, watchmen straighten up, pay attention and take notice. God is just as serious today about sinners turning from their wicked ways to take refuge in Christ.
- B. Watchmen like the apostle Paul warn, and more than once if given the opportunity, to be free from the blood of all men. They will not hold their peace until the lost are saved and Christ is formed in them. In short, the watchman keeps his post his entire life because if the lost are breathing, they need Jesus.
- C. Pleasing Christ is the watchman's sole priority. He sifts out worldly enticements that entangle him in earthly affairs and pull him away from completing the race set before him. His eyes are focused on eternity rather than the things of this world which are passing away. Therefore, he sees the days as short and the souls of men on a collision course with Judgment Day unless they repent and believe.
- D. God completely proved His love for mankind when He gave the gift of His Son to pay for the sins of the whole world. "The cross is proof that souls matter to God." The watchman warns the lost because God's love dwells in him, and he fully believes God's judgment is coming for those who reject His Son. "When a watchman speaks and warns people about eternity, it is proof to God that souls matter to the watchman as well." The watchman shows he has aligned his heart with God's purposes when he warns lost men to turn from their sin and trust Christ for salvation.

The Watchmen

Chapter 2: You Plus

---

1. God's Watchmen

- A. God promises He will never leave or forsake His children. Just as God was with Moses and Joshua, He will be with His watchmen too. Watchmen can take courage to stand for what is right and true, even when others won't, knowing their stand brings protection and life for themselves and others as well.
- B. What giants causing real trouble are presenting themselves in your life (David)? What situations have impossible odds for a good outcome (Elisha)? Is there a conspiracy brewing against you because you are a Christian (Esther)? Do you need to put everything on the line for God (Daniel)? Do you need to boldly speak truth to those convinced of a different belief system so they might repent and be saved (Stephen)? The stories in this chapter provide help in dealing with such situations.

2. King David and Goliath - 1 Samuel 17

- A. The man after God's own heart stands up for His God! David brazenly challenged the Philistine champion, Goliath, knowing the battle was the Lord's. David shunned the weapons of the flesh to stand in the name of the Lord of Hosts. Israelite lives, land, and the sacred things of God were at stake. David's stunning victory, before the enemies of Israel, proved to all that the God of Israel is God Most High. David, plus the Holy Spirit, was the majority against Goliath and the Philistine armies.
- B. There are many 'Goliaths' in life that hamper men from believing that God and the Bible are trustworthy. Secular teachings, macro evolution, and false religious beliefs all affect one's worldview. Christians arm themselves with truth to destroy every speculation raised up against the knowledge of God. Standing for truth, regardless of our audience, allows God to move across the hearts of those present. If we fail to stand, the lost will not hear the gospel and others will fear standing up for truth as well.

3. Elisha and the Chariots of Fire - 2 Kings 6

- A. God's prophet, Elisha, warned the King of Israel about the movements of the advancing King of Assyria. Elisha fully trusted God to protect Israel and his city that was encircled by the Syrian regiment. When Elisha's servant saw the angelic realm, he realized that "they that be with us are more than they that be with them." Elisha's servant learned to look through his physical circumstances to seek supernatural deliverance from God. Believers who walk by faith can 'see' God working through their circumstances to bring about amazing rescues as well.
- B. Watchmen instinctively turn to God for deliverance, especially in impossible situations. They commit their ways to the LORD knowing He is their refuge and strength. God's deliverance from our enemies renews our strength causing our hearts to soar; to run and not be weary. When we trust that we plus the Holy Spirit are a majority anywhere we go, unexplainable encounters and miraculous circumstances reveal our God moving right before our eyes.

4. Daniel Prays Publicly - Daniel 6

- A. Imagine being taken captive as a teenager and moved to another country for the rest of your life. Daniel loved his God and God's land and people. He resolved to stay committed to Him and His law all the days of his captivity in the land of Babylon. Surely he was raised by godly parents who fostered in him a love of the law, of God, of His great deliverances for Israel, and of obediently living for Him.

- B. Daniel understood his responsibility, as a high official in the Babylonian and Persian governments, was most likely a protection for the Israelite captives. He faced his trials head on and undaunted, zealously determined to stand for the things of God. He purposely prayed openly in spite of the law that would bring his sure arrest and death in the lion's den. His obedience to God was not hidden but fully public, and God miraculously and publicly delivered him. The results were King Darius knew that Daniel's God was true, the Jews were protected, and his conspirators suffered the fate they intended for him.
- C. The story of Daniel encourages us to trust God to do the impossible in full view of others. Daniel was not alone because he plus the Holy Spirit was a majority against his conspirators and in the lion's den. As with Daniel, God is able to deliver us from certain trouble with great joy, increased courage, and incredible exploits for Him. Standing boldly and firmly for God, in impossible situations, gives Him the opportunity to thunder to all involved that He alone is God! When God is glorified in big ways, the lost know that He is the only God, the gospel will spread and Jesus Christ will be trusted for salvation.

5. Queen Esther Approaches the King - The Book of Esther

- A. Mordecai helped Queen Esther to recognize and seize the unique opportunity to glorify her God and protect His people...."for such a time as this."
- B. Esther fasted, prayed, and fully trusted the Lord as she put her life 'on the line' by approaching the king unsummoned to make her request..."and if I perish, I perish." The result was God used her bold stand to save the Jewish people dispersed throughout Persia. While the initial decree gave Israel's enemies permission to slay them, thus bringing them out in the open, the second decree allowed Israel to defend their lives, and destroy and plunder their attacking enemies. God's protection and deliverance of Israel from their enemies is commemorated even today through their celebration of the Feast of Purim, all because of Esther's 'sold out' faith.
- C. Watchmen see critical moments all around them and don't let them slip away. They risk their lives to do what's right so that others might live. Watchmen stand strong for God and His truth, as well as encourage others to take 'no other choice' risks for God as well. They are living examples of committed faith.

6. Stephan Testifies - Acts 7

- A. Stephan was full of faith and wisdom that could not be refuted by the Jews. He actively shared his faith which landed him before the High Priest. Stephan's powerful speech convicted and infuriated the Sanhedrin who stopped up their ears and rushed upon him to stone him. Jesus Christ, the Lord of heaven and earth, stood to receive His faithful witness.
- B. Saul, who later became the apostle Paul, witnessed all of the events surrounding Stephen's stoning that no doubt spoke to his heart. The death of Stephan brought the persecution of believers which caused the gospel to spread everywhere the people were scattered.
- C. God uses faithful witnesses to spread the gospel, even when 'religious' people try to suppress it. We need to push through the fear of unbiblical authority, and rejection from friends, family and peers to stand boldly for truth. Others are watching and listening. God can do incredible things in the lives of the lost and the saved if we will stand our ground to back up our profession of faith.

7. Watchmen Take God at His Word

- A. God knows every trial we face and promises never to leave or forsake us. When watchmen take great risks for God, He remains faithful to keep His promises and work these trials together for good. God blesses His watchmen with great joy and great stories that magnify His faithfulness. These light and momentary troubles then become priceless. He promises that if He is for us, no one can be against us because, "You plus the Holy Spirit are a majority anywhere you go!"
- B. Watchmen take God's promises at face value because they believe that God and His Word are completely trustworthy. They would rather die than turn away from their God. In fact, they would die for Him and His truth. The watchman knows that God's eyes are on the righteous, and He will keep His promises to them. To that end, God pours His heart of faithfulness out to His watchmen who believe and act on His promises. They know that they "plus the Holy Spirit is an unstoppable force anywhere you go!"

Chapter 3: Hey Stranger

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Follow the God's Commands

- A. Watchmen always take their instructions from God's Word. Jesus says we are to share the gospel with every creature and reach out to the uttermost parts of the earth. We are to preach the gospel along the highways and byways everywhere we go to gather children for the kingdom of God.
- B. If evangelism techniques are not coming from the Bible, they are not coming from God. Evangelism cannot be redefined, minimized or considered optional, otherwise the result is the lost are not reached and God is not glorified. God equips believers with the power and desire to evangelize biblically.

2. Watchman Witness Before Friendship

- A. The Bible never tells watchmen they must earn the right to speak truth into anyone's life. The gospel is not bound. God has given believers the command and the right to open their mouths to speak boldly to everyone they meet about the Lord Jesus. If they don't speak up, they are disobeying God.
- B. The Bible never tells watchmen to first make friends with the lost who need their warning much more than their friendship. Christians will interact with thousands of people in their lifetime, but will probably make friends with only hundreds of people. Stipulating that we make friends of the lost first would exclude countless numbers of people from hearing the gospel. Watchmen make sure to warn the people who cross their paths. Some of those whom we witness to may eventually become our friends and acquaintances.
- C. Friendship evangelism creates bonding between the lost and the Christian, and makes sharing truth potentially stressful to the relationship. The watchman reaches many more people when he doesn't make friends with the lost first. It is much wiser to share the gospel before becoming friends. Friendship evangelism hopes the lost person will initiate discussions about the gospel, which rarely happens.
- D. Watchmen love to tell others about Jesus Christ, Truth and the wondrous works of God. The Lord loves when Christians speak of Him, even recording their thoughts in a book of remembrance. The Bible says we speak out of the overflow of the heart where the love of God naturally overflows into the lives of all we meet. Watchmen can't help thinking and talking about the things of God and how He has worked in their lives.

3. Watchmen Talk to Strangers

- A. Over 80% of the witnessing encounters in the NT are with total strangers. Since watchmen can't be friends with "all creatures," we must evangelize people we do not know. Watchmen can evangelize many people when sharing with total strangers.
- B. Watchmen are safe people with whom strangers can explore truth or unload their burdens when a friend or relative may not be safe. They are free to ask tough questions because there is no fear of creating problems or breaking a relationship with a stranger. We earn their momentary trust by being kind, friendly, and taking an interest in them without hypocrisy.

4. Watchmen's Good Deeds Adorn the Gospel

- A. Various religions do many good deeds in the name of their gods who cannot save. Watchmen know that good deeds adorn the true gospel of Christ. The lost are watching. When our actions back up the truth we declare, it is a powerful demonstration of God's love moving through us to them. If His presence in our lives is real, the lost realize Jesus Christ has the power to save and transform their lives as well. The lost will not be saved by watching our good deeds, but by hearing and believing the Biblical truth we proclaim.
- B. When watchmen live up to their calling, they confirm to men who are searching for real answers in life and for eternity that there really is a God who loves them thoroughly, and has messengers on earth communicating His love and good news to them. The hearts of the lost can be opened to truth when we express love to them through helps, spending time, buying necessities, etc. We pour the love and truth of God into the lives of everyone around us.

5. Watchmen Trust God for Follow Up

- A. Watchmen want the light of God to shine before all men. Watchmen 'follow up' with those they have witnessed to as circumstances allow. This includes providing them with Bibles, books, DVDs, prayer, phone calls, meeting again, emails, inviting them to church or anything else that helps them move toward trusting Jesus Christ for salvation.
- B. 'Follow up' is always good, but lack of 'follow up' often occurs. The story of Philip with the Ethiopian eunuch illustrates that God Himself carried the apostle Philip immediately out of a witnessing situation making 'follow up' impossible. Jesus spoke with the woman at the well as He was just passing through Samaria. Paul spoke to King Agrippa. Watchmen will always witness and never withhold the gospel when 'follow up' is not possible.

6. Watchmen Remember Their Own Conversion

- A. Watchmen are thankful Christians took the time to share with them the truths of God that drew them to Christ. Retracing the steps of our own conversion is always fascinating. Many things may have contributed to our hearing, understanding and believing the gospel. It may have taken years of weighing the truth, a moment of full repentant faith or a combination of both before our own repentance and belief occurred.
- B. The person who comes to Christ must repent of their sins, and believe that Jesus is God who took on flesh to die on the cross and shed His blood as the sacrifice and atonement for the sins of the world. Jesus was buried three days proving He was actually dead, and then resurrected the third day proving He has the power over life and death. His life fulfilled hundreds of prophecies proving that He was the long anticipated Messiah, Savior and Lord. The sinner who calls on the name of the Lord, believes in his heart unto righteousness, and confesses with his mouth unto salvation.

7. Watchmen Blow the Trumpet

- A. The Great White Throne judgment will be a terrifying moment for those who will be judged with no chance for pardon. Some of those standing there will be people we know, love, or have crossed paths with in life. This scene is a good reminder to make every moment count for the Lord and the lost. There can be no excuses for not sharing the gospel with every living creature.
- B. The task of reaching the lost needs an army of watchmen who take their responsibilities seriously because the world is sleeping. Since the dread of judgment fills the watchmen's hearts, they convey this message to friend and stranger alike who have been lulled to sleep concerning salvation. We need to wake them to the reality of hell and to the way of escape. Rather than let the lost walk unawares into eternal judgment, let's prepare them instead for the wedding feast of the Lamb and heaven thereafter!

The Watchmen

Chapter 4: Speak With Boldness

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Follow Jesus Christ

- A. Watchmen take Jesus' command to "come follow Me" very seriously. There is no 'following Jesus' without also fishing for the souls of men. Jesus Christ paid for the sins of every man with His very life and there is no way He is not also passionate about His followers reaching the lost. The call of all watchmen is to make known the complete love of God proved on the cross to all men everywhere.
- B. Christians have not always made evangelism the high priority it needs to be in their lives, nor in the life of their church. When approached about whether we share our faith, all Christians should respond with committed zeal. Watchmen want to please and obey Jesus in this most important regard.

2. Watchmen "Want to" Reach the Lost

- A. Watchmen have the desire to step out of their 'comfort zone' and into the zone of boldly proclaiming the gospel. The Spirit of God in them compels them to speak up. Often we just need to step out in faith to get started. Once we do, the joy of reaching the lost surprises us, and intensifies our desire to keep witnessing.
- B. Men made in the image of God have the capacity to understand and evaluate the truth that Jesus loves them, paid for their sins on the cross, and resurrected three days later. Since Jesus said sinners need to repent and believe the gospel, watchmen instruct men to do the same. God has set eternity in the hearts of men who have the ability to believe and are without excuse for not coming to faith in Christ.
- C. Watchmen want to be strong witnesses for their Lord. They boldly proclaim that sinners must repent and believe on Him to be saved from eternal judgment. The word 'witness' can also mean martyr. Men who love sin and hate the light of God consider believers to be the stench of death to them. They hate conviction for their evil deeds and will even murder the messenger to put the message of truth to death.
- D. Persecution strengthens the resolve of the watchman to give the message of truth more boldly to the lost. They have died to self and are living for Jesus which produces much fruit. Persecution forces decisions which reveal who is really for Christ. People need to "stand up for Jesus or walk away."

3. Watchmen Cannot be "Afraid to" Speak Boldly

- A. Christians often have a fear of rejection that holds them back from proclaiming truth. It is the Holy Spirit who empowers watchmen to testify boldly to the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Spirit of Truth speaks not of Himself, but testifies of truth and magnifies the Son.
- B. Watchmen grasp the monumental sacrifice that Jesus made for every man, and therefore care that His provision for sin is not disregarded. It would be a crime of indifference against Jesus not to tell the lost that He died for them. He asks watchmen not to let the news about His sacrifice sit idle and waste away, but to hand deliver His great gift to everyone they meet. Watchmen have the special privilege of making the joy of both Giver and receiver complete, while being swept up in the joy of the purposes of God as well! If we value the lost, and the great sacrifice that Jesus provided, we will tell everyone we meet of God's immense love for them.
- C. Jesus says the world will hate us because it first hated Him. When watchmen speak up, they give the world a reason for rejecting them. Witnessing proves our devotion to Jesus Christ while at the same time revealing men's attitude toward Him. Watchmen rejoice in rejection and suffering knowing their reward is the Lord in heaven and not anything in this earthly life.
- D. Watchmen remember they serve the Lord God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, who is all powerful, righteous and holy. God is on the side of those who trust Him, and so watchmen do not fear men who die. God is the One before whom all men will stand to give an account of their lives and therefore the only One whom watchmen fear. Those who fear men have lost sight of the correct perspective.

4. Watchmen Learn "How To" Share Their Faith

- A. Watchmen learn to share their faith from those who practice witnessing regularly. They remember the God they serve answers prayer. They pray for boldness, ask for the right people to talk to, ask for open hearts, and to take the U-turns the Spirit prompts them to make. As they practice sharing their faith, they see which scriptures they should memorize to use in discussions with the lost.
- B. Watchmen remember that sharing their faith is a conversation, not a presentation. Friendly greetings build trust with those they approach. Watchmen notice natural conversation starters such as bracelets, tattoos or circumstances around them to discuss. They listen and prompt further conversation by asking questions. People love to talk about themselves which lets the watchman look for doors that lead to a supernatural discussion.
- C. Questions that open a spiritual discussion include: "Can I ask you an interesting question?" or "If you were to die tonight, are you 100% assured you would go to heaven?" or "Did you grow up in any religious faith or tradition as a child? Now that you're older, is that more important to you or less important?" We remember to listen carefully to their answers, and then ask them questions such as: "Why do you believe that?" or "What evidence have you found to back up your beliefs?" or "How do you know this to be true?" These open ended questions plant seeds with the lost to get them thinking about whether their beliefs are really true and worth staking their eternity on.
- D. Once we introduce the importance of God and eternity, we can move the discussion toward the problem of sin. Sin causes people to hide from God and their unforgiven sin will keep them out of heaven. However, most people think they are good enough to go to heaven. We can ask: "Do you consider yourself to be a good person?" Then we show them their sin according to the Bible. It is the Holy Spirit, not us, who convicts them of sin through using scripture. God alone has no sin and therefore He alone is good and qualified to be the unblemished sacrifice for sin.
- E. The law of God makes sin clearly evident. It shows men they have broken God's moral standards and convicts sinners of their serious need for a Savior. The law shows men their exceeding sinfulness before a holy God who hates all sin. Law keeping cannot wash away sin and therefore cannot save. Men need to repent and believe upon the Lord Jesus Christ so their sins may be blotted out and washed away by His blood.
- F. God requires a perfect blood sacrifice as the payment for sins committed against Him. 'Perfect' because a sinful man can't pay for his own sins. 'Blood' because it alone cleanses and washes away sin. 'Sacrifice' because the wages of sin is death. The believing sinner who has come to God in repentance and faith is cleansed of sin and free to go to heaven. The lost must trust this exact payment for sins because those who ignore or reject it will remain lost for all eternity.
- G. Watchmen truly care about the lost person's eternal condition. Sometimes the truth can be challenging for them to hear. The watchman approaches the lost in love, gives them clear truth, and then finishes with love. It's the love-truth-love sandwich. In reality though, the whole conversation is love from start to finish. It is loving to warn them about coming judgment. We tangibly demonstrate love with perhaps a hug, picking up a meal check, blessing them financially or just spending time with them listening. They will know us by our love.

5. Watchmen Practice Sharing Their Faith

- A. Watchmen run across people all the time who claim to have repented of their sins and believed upon the Lord Jesus Christ, but have either the wrong answer or no answer when asked how a person gets to heaven. The watchman makes sure everyone understands the clear gospel message that Jesus is God who took on a body of flesh and blood to become the perfect, blood, sacrifice for sin, and who resurrected proving He has the power to conquer death and give life. The true believer knows the true gospel by which they were saved. They don't forget Jesus, they don't look back at the things of the world and they know for certain the way of salvation. Jesus alone is the answer for eternal life.
- B. Watchmen "want to" and know they cannot be "afraid to" and constantly practice "how to" share their faith. Anyone who is born again and breathing can be a soul winner for the Most High God!

The Watchmen

Chapter 5: Prayer Changes Things

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Know that Prayer Changes Things

- A. Watchmen understand that prayer is an intimate conversation with God about the things of God. Prayer before Almighty God humbles and softens our hearts producing in us a gracious spirit. We pour out our gratitude, thankfulness, love and appreciation for His salvation and incredible works. We thank Him for the prayers He's already answered and show trust for the prayers He has yet to answer. Through prayer, we put our lives in the hands of God. Paul prayed without ceasing with thanks for the saints and work of the Lord.
- B. The heart of the watchman lines up with the heart of God when he prays for laborers to be raised up to go into all the world and share the gospel with the lost, even when those laborers might be in difficult circumstances. To that end he waits patiently for his prayers to be answered, regardless of circumstances or his own suffering, because the watchman fully believes that prayer changes things.

2. Watchmen Pray to Move the Heart of God

- A. When watchmen pray in the name of Jesus, they reflect back to God all that His name and character represents. They seek to be in the center of His will whether praying or living. This is the heart that God delights to listen to in prayer because it is fully devoted to Him and praying in His will.
- B. God delights to answer the prayers of those who steadfastly seek His face, are upright in heart, and fear His name. Obedience and answered prayer are related. Watchmen pray that the incomprehensible love of Christ, which strengthens and empowers their service for Him, would be known by all the saints, moving them to also share the love of God with the lost. They pray for boldness to speak up and not fear men who die, but the Lord to whom they answer.
- C. Asking for things not in the will of God, but centered on self, does not move the heart of God. God is interested in His watchmen representing Him well to back up the gospel they preach without hypocrisy. Those who cherish sin create separation from God and will not be heard. He is concerned about our character, as well as our requests, when we approach Him in prayer.
- D. Taking pleasure in sin hampers our prayers but repentance, confession, purifying our hearts, washing with the pure water of the Word and drawing near to God puts us back on track with Him.

3. Watchmen Live to Please God

- A. Watchmen want Christ to be their very life. They want always to be found pleasing to Him, abounding with fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God. They back up their profession of faith with actions worthy of the Lord. They gather older watchmen around them who live for Christ, treat others well, and reach out to the lost to help them stay the course and finish their lives victoriously for the Lord.
- B. Jabez prayed that God would bless him, keep him from evil, enlarge his coast, and that God's hand would be with him. The prayer of Jabez was answered because he was an honorable man who could be trusted with these blessings from God. We can pray for provision, favor, wisdom, knowledge, opportunity, laborers, and anything else that will bless the heart of God by using His gifts for His purposes.

4. Watchmen Know Jesus Does His Bidding

- A. Watchmen know they are responsible to tell the lost that Jesus Christ is God who humbled Himself by taking on human flesh to become the sin sacrifice on the cross for every single person who has ever lived. His name is exalted above every name and should be confessed, honored and worshiped by all creation to the glory of the Father. If the essence of this message is altered in any way and then trumpeted, it is not the name of Jesus that is being proclaimed, but rather the name of an impostor who cannot save.
- B. Colossians 4:2-6 is a great summary passage for watchmen to always keep in mind. It focuses their attention on the need to pray for boldness and opportunities in reaching the lost because prayer changes things. Watchmen pray with thanksgiving as they ask God to open doors to speak the mystery of Christ, to walk in wisdom toward unbelievers, redeem the time, and season their conversations with salt. Committing this prayer to memory keeps the watchman focused on living wisely and in the will of God.
- C. Jesus can do the work of convicting and bringing other Christians behind us to pick up where we leave off after sharing the gospel with someone. However, other Christians can't be the answer to our prayers unless they choose to boldly give out truth. When we speak up and are the answer to someone's prayer, there is amazing joy for all involved. Perhaps those we are concerned about and share truth with might one day become another soul winner for Christ.
- D. Pray for God's boldness to speak up, for watchfulness, soberness, and protection as you move through your day. Pray that God will use you to open your mouth to speak about His Son, open your eyes to see who He wants you to talk to, and move you where He wants you to go. Pray to fear God and not men, for protection, and that God would show you how He uses you for His glory. After praying, we walk confidently into the situations God puts right in front of us. These are our divine appointments.
- E. Those who hate the watchman, who bears and testifies to the truth, really hate Jesus who is the Truth. If they persecuted Him, they will persecute watchmen who blow their trumpet clearly. When people are disgruntled in life, they are expressing discontent toward God for what He has allowed in their lives. Watchmen do not need to fear men or persecution because they know God is aware of threats formed against them and will allow only what advances His purposes.

5. Watchmen Pray Without Ceasing

- A. Watchmen use their long nights on the wall wisely by praying without ceasing for all things, especially for those they've witnessed to, those they're concerned for, and those they're hoping to reach with the gospel. They pray for the Lord to work in the hearts of the lost, and to give them opportunities to blow their trumpet clearly so the unsaved will heed the warnings and find salvation in Christ.
- B. Watchmen fully believe that God is still on the throne and prayer change things! They lay their requests before the Lord with confidence knowing He answers those who follow Him.

The Watchmen

Chapter 6: More Blessed To Give Than Receive

---

1. Watchmen Build Up Others

- A. God knows that all men need encouragement and watchmen know this as well. When encouraged and edified, we are strengthened to do our best for the Lord. Watchmen greatly desire to pour out encouragement to others through words of truth, Christian wisdom, expressions of acceptance, gestures of kindness, accepting tones of voice, and a friendly demeanor. Everything within them wants to bless others.
- B. Since the Lord has shown us great mercy and grace, watchmen are filled with the same as they give out truth. They are gracious, humble, gentle, merciful, bold, slow to anger, cheerful and anxious to radiate the character of God to others. They may extend hugs, pats on the shoulders, hand shakes, prayers and gifts to express God's love to others. Gracious watchmen do not get angry with the lost, whom they know are spiritually blind, because they want to lead them to Christ.

2. Watchmen are Givers

- A. Watchmen have the life of God dwelling in them. Since God's love moved Him to sacrificially give His only begotten Son for the sins of the world, watchmen want to give as well. Like God, they want to pour "life" into others. Their generosity not only opens doors to witnessing, but speaks volumes to others about the love of God as well. When watchmen freely give, they adorn the gospel of Christ and demonstrate the graciousness of God in immeasurable ways.
- B. Watchmen find it much more blessed to give than to receive while the world holds on to its possessions tightly. When watchmen bless unbelievers, they dispel the unfair reputation Christians have for only being takers.
- C. Watchmen know that God opens hearts and works miracles through their generosity. Lavish giving blesses the lost and the Lord, as well as the watchman, because they are all swept up in the good purposes of God. Watchmen who give liberally have blessings overflowing into the lives of everyone around them.
- D. God considers it robbery to withhold giving, tithes and offerings to Him. Platforms for truth and miracles that confirm God's gracious nature are lost when giving is withheld. Praises for these withheld blessings are also stolen from God. These missed opportunities hamper blessing others with the gospel. Watchmen want to be givers. We will one day give an account for how we used the resources with which we have been entrusted.
- E. God is most concerned with our heart attitude toward giving because God loves a cheerful giver. Enthusiastic givers anticipate the joy that comes when God uses our tithes and offerings to bless the lives of others and to work wonders right before our eyes. Generous giving shows the lost we love them and trust the Lord to meet our needs though we give much away.
- F. Pride in giving doesn't bring God's blessings, but rather discipline through humbling instead.
- G. Christians, who represent the Most High God, should set the standards for giving. Watchmen rise up to this call. They give generously of their time, talents and resources to bless, even when they have few resources, to open opportunities to give out the gospel. "Little is much with God in it." Watchmen welcome others into their homes, share meals and provide helps when possible to create opportunities to witness to the lost.

3. Watchmen Evangelize with the Gospel

- A. The watchman's primary objective in life is to reach the unsaved with the gospel. Paul makes very clear that the gospel must be verbally preached and heard in order for it to be believed. The lost must hear, reason through, and believe the gospel to escape condemnation on Judgment Day.
- B. Good deeds can open doors to evangelism, and in that way be considered pre-evangelism, but cannot at all replace the giving of truth. 'Servant evangelism' by good deeds cannot possibly replace the verbal sharing of the gospel. The gospel is a verbal proclamation, not a visual demonstration.
- C. Indirect witnessing occurs when we share truth with one person while another is listening. The one overhearing our conversation just might be the one God is really reaching. Therefore, we need to lift our voices up like a trumpet and proclaim truth in the hearing of all present.

4. Watchmen Lay Their Lives Down

- A. Watchmen willingly lay their lives down for the One who laid His life down for them. Watchmen live for eternity now, and are sending their deeds ahead to heaven by blessing others. It is better to use our goods for God's purposes in this life, rather than store them up, because we can't take anything but our deeds with us when we die. Promises of dying for Jesus later when we will not lay down our lives now merely puts off what believers are called to do today.
- B. Believers' works will one day be tested by fire to reveal the genuineness of their quality. Valuable works will be rewarded while worthless works will be burned up. Watchmen know the Lord loves to bless and His blessings on that day will be unimaginable. Watchmen hope to hear Jesus say to them, "Well done, good and faithful servant" and look forward to entering into the joy of their Master's happiness.
- C. Watchmen know that God and others take notice when they lay down their lives through alms and giving. If they truly are givers, they will be well-known for their sacrificial love expressed through blessing others generously.

5. Watchmen Love Others

- A. Watchmen know that God's love, grace and encouragement are just passing through them into the lives of those around them. While the truth they proclaim might be rejected, their heart of love which is the heart of God will always be remembered. We should be well-known as generous givers.
- B. Just as God freely gave to them, watchmen freely give to others. The joy of giving energizes watchmen and keeps them from becoming weary in doing good. Watchmen fix their eyes on Christ, the author and finisher of their faith, as they run the race set before them. They make every effort to reap a harvest for the Lord before hitting the finish line of life!

The Watchmen

Chapter 7: "I Think About Eternity All The Time"

---

1. Watchmen Reason With Truth

- A. Watchmen engage the lost daily as part of their normal routine. They discuss truth wherever they go in a back and forth manner of conversation to get people thinking about biblical truths, eternity and salvation. Asking the lost who they believe Jesus Christ to be quickly focuses their attention on the most important question of life.
- B. Watchmen reason from the scriptures that Jesus is the Christ whose blood cleanses the stain of sin away from whosoever believes in Him. He alone forgives sins. Since watchmen reason from the Bible, those who argue with them are really arguing with the words of God.

2. Watchmen Know People Respond to Truth Differently

- A. When the gospel is openly preached as it was with Paul, some men will believe, some will mock and still others will cause trouble such as public humiliation, false accusations, and allegations of strange teachings. However, some might investigate truth further and believe, as God allowed Paul to see in each of the cities mentioned in Acts 17.
- B. The Bereans willingly searched the scriptures daily to see if Paul's teachings were true. Watchmen do the same today as they test all teachings against scripture as well. Watchmen challenge the lost to test their personal beliefs against the Bible so their answers for eternity are grounded in truth and not in personal opinion or in the traditions of men.
- C. Watchmen turn their world upside down with truth as they challenge conventional thinking about salvation. As with Paul, the religiously proud may feel threatened and appeal to higher authorities to silence the gospel. Watchmen are always known to stand for truth no matter what the cost.

3. Watchmen Are Always On A Mission Trip

- A. Watchmen are single-minded in their concern for the eternal destination of everyone they meet. They turn every outing into a mission trip where they engage lost people with salvation truths. The sharing of their faith is a daily, rather than a weekly, monthly, or yearly mission trip occurrence.
- B. Just as Paul spoke in the market places of his day, watchmen frequent locations where people gather. They engage the lost with Biblical truth to provide solid answers for their questions and to stop the lies of the world from seeping in, which can either prevent or destroy faith.
- C. As watchmen reach the lost, they might touch the heart of a future watchman unawares as with Mitsuo Fuchida. His guilt, bitterness and disillusionment were only removed by the forgiveness that is found in Jesus Christ. After his conversion, he spent the rest of his life as an evangelist, "striking a death blow to the basic hatred which infests the human heart and causes such tragedies. And that hatred cannot be uprooted without assistance from Jesus Christ."

4. Watchmen Challenge Idolatry

- A. In both Thessalonica and Athens, the Greeks worshiped idols made by human hands and human minds. God created mankind with the capacity to worship Him, which the Athenians were not doing. God alone is to be worshiped because He alone gives life and breath to all creatures. All peoples should revere Him with an attitude of grateful thanks for granting and sustaining their lives.

- B. Our culture worships what it values most; accomplished people, self, sports, entertainment, possessions and even ideas. Men create idols which they worship in ignorance. Watchmen are grieved by the ravishing of lives and the judgment of God that idolatry inevitably brings. This moves them to cast down every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God and bring the lost to a saving knowledge of their Savior.
- C. All men know their Creator exists, and therefore are without excuse for their idolatry. Men will be held accountable to search for God in their lifetime. God promises that the one who searches for Him will find him. Any who asks, seeks or knocks will find truth, be forgiven if they repent and believe, and receive an open door to salvation.

5. Watchmen Engage the Culture

- A. Watchmen know that people love to talk, especially about themselves. Talking builds friendship which allows a serious religious question to be dropped into a conversation. People will often reveal their view of God and eternity when they feel safe. Watchmen take these opportunities to engage them with Biblical truth.
- B. Most people think they will be just fine when they stand before God on Judgment Day. Watchmen prepare them for that day by challenging their false religiosity, false gods, false conceptions of Jesus, and even the adding of Jesus to their collection of gods in order "to cover all their bases."
- C. Macroevolution asserts that complex life evolved from random non-living molecules. Therefore the lost may reason that the God of the Bible didn't create life and by extension doesn't exist. The apostle Paul argues for the existence of God with the Athenians by saying that if they are living beings and are God's offspring, then God is living as well. The Law of Biogenesis basically asserts the same with its axiom that life produces life. Evolution cannot coexist in the least with the book of Genesis or the rest of the Bible. They are mutually exclusive and cannot be blended. God cannot lie and the Bible is proven true.
- D. The subject of sin, the righteousness of Christ, the crucifixion, and the resurrection seemed strange to the Athenians who generally believed in pleasure, an impersonal god, or that everything in the universe is collectively god (Pantheism). God provides the Ten Commandments to clearly convict men of violating His moral standards for which He will bring all men to account. He wants all men to repent and believe the gospel to escape His coming judgment against all who love sin and refuse His terms of peace and offer of forgiveness.
- E. Even the worst of sinners, like Paul before becoming an apostle or David Berkowitz (Son of Sam), are not outside of God's forgiveness and salvation. Those who seek God, repent, and believe will be forgiven the most grievous of sins. There should be no hint of prejudice against sinners, or racism toward people groups, among watchmen. Every person is an eternal being and must be given the opportunity to believe and be saved. Those who do, regardless of past sins or race, will be standing before the throne of God with us one day.

6. Watchmen Turn the World Upside Down

- A. Watchmen are not surprised when the lost mock and suppress the gospel of God. The souls of men are too important to worry about being treated well or being accepted by others. Like themselves, there are people in the world who "think about eternity all the time." While a person may say 'no' to truth with their mouth, the watchman knows they may say 'yes' to truth in their heart. Watchmen willingly inform the lost about eternity knowing there are some who are searching for answers, will weigh the truth, and will trust Christ for salvation.
- B. The watchman's mission in life is to win souls to Christ wherever lost people are found. They know God is just as concerned with their neighbor down the street as with the man on the other side of the globe. Watchmen do not waste time as they take to the streets and market places to engage the lost in order to point them toward the eternal truths of God that can save their souls. They gladly turn the world around them upside down with the gospel to reach those who might choose to believe and be saved.

The Watchmen

Chapter 8: Is Not My Word As Like A Fire?

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Know the Importance of the God's Word

- A. Watchmen proclaim biblical truth which reveals God's character and the redemption He offers. It is more precious than gold and worth treasuring. It is worth suffering persecution and even death to uphold. The Word of God is life to the watchman. Without a healthy diet of God's Word, a person will emaciate into a frail picture of a Christian.
- B. These quotes show the great appreciation that men from all walks of life have for the Bible. The Scriptures are God's gift to mankind for knowing the way of salvation, guidance in right living, the welfare and protection of citizens within a nation, and an education that no institution can provide.
- C. All people, meaning the lost, the saved, adults and children, should read and learn the Bible in order to be saved and to produce lives that reflect the image of God to others. This is accomplished through preaching, studying, meditating on, obeying, and treasuring the scriptures. There is no other book in life that even comes close to its importance. God says His Word is complete and gives strong warnings against adding to it any other teachings or writings.

2. Watchmen Protect the True Gospel

- A. Satan perverts the gospel to prevent people from being saved. He twists and redefines truth to hook people into false doctrines that drag them away from God. Watchmen are very careful to keep their guard up around religious folks and filter every teaching through the Bible.
- B. The false gospel which says that many paths lead to heaven is the broad road of destruction promoted by many trusted religious and political leaders today. Watchmen serve God by confronting these lies and exposing those promoting them so the lost will trust the narrow way of salvation found in Jesus Christ alone. Those who fear offending others, rather than pleasing God, cause the true gospel to be silenced.
- C. Watchmen ask the lost who they believe Jesus to be because knowing that He is God is critical to salvation. It is God who became the perfect blood sacrifice for sins. We must come to God to be forgiven of sins and it is Jesus alone who holds the keys of eternal life.

3. Watchmen Know the Character of God

- A. God equips every lost person with the ability to reason through truth, repent and believe because He truly wants to save all who will turn and trust Him. His offer of salvation is genuine because God is genuinely calling every sinner to choose life.
- B. Watchmen know that every person has the ability to reason through truth and cry out to God for forgiveness. God invites men to reason with Him and warns them to repent because they are able to do so. Anyone who repents and comes to Jesus for salvation receives abundant pardon.
- C. Those who deny that God exists are the ones who refuse to seek Him and therefore cannot be saved. Men who choose to hide from both God and the light of truth do so because their deeds are evil. Those who believe God exists and earnestly seek Him will be rewarded with eternal life.

- D. The Bible teaches that God saves those who meet the condition of faith from the heart. If He saved on the basis of preselecting particular people, He would be a respecter of persons which the Bible denounces. God's holy, righteous, merciful and loving character is seen in giving all men the ability and choice to believe and be saved.
- E. God's just character is seen in giving all men the ability and responsibility to repent and believe the gospel. As a just Judge, He does not tamper with the case of faith by preselecting who will be saved. There is no unrighteousness with God, and the Judge of all the earth always does right.
- F. In order for the teaching of unconditional election to gain a foothold, words in scripture such as 'world,' 'whoever,' 'whosoever,' 'all' and 'everyman' must be redefined to mean the 'elect.' Redefining God's words to carry distorted meaning renders a theology that can easily take its followers captive to the philosophies and traditions of men.
- G. When the psalmist says God magnifies His word above His name, this should not allow wrong interpretations of God's Word to be applied to His name. God's name is identical with the Word and therefore magnifying one cannot be at the expense of the other. Our understanding of scripture should always reflect God's holy and righteous character.
- H. If God predetermined for only some men to be saved, there would be no point in Jesus dying for every man. However, God says He laid the iniquities of us all on His Son who is the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the whole world. Jesus died for the world, that lusts after sin, and for the false teachers who reject Him.
- I. The Bible says that God's great love moved Him to give His Son as the sacrifice for the sins of the world. If God 'saves' some men from their deadness in sin by gifting them with special enabling grace, He could easily save all men in the same way but is unwilling. However, the Bible says that God is not willing for any to perish but for all men to come to repentance. Since God says He wants all men to repent, then it is men who resist the Holy Spirit's conviction, as the Pharisees did when Stephen confronted them with their sin before he was stoned.
- J. If men were too depraved to believe the gospel and if God must unconditionally preselect who is to be saved, then those rejected by God will have this as their excuse when they stand before Him on Judgment Day. However, the Bible says that all men are without excuse because they know that God exists and that sin will bring His righteous judgment.
- K. If preselected men have been regenerated before hearing the gospel, then evangelism becomes a quest to 'discover the elect' rather than 'evangelize the lost.'

4. Watchmen Guard Against False Teachings

- A. Watchmen know that twisted truth breeds deception, so they are very careful to know their scriptures. They test all teachings by the Word of God to keep from being deceived and from deceiving others. They quickly distance themselves from any false teachings that twist the character of God or the gospel and don't allow themselves to get comfortable with these or 'see' value in them. They warn everyone they can by blowing their trumpet long and loud that danger is coming in the form of these false teachings.
- B. Knowing the truthfulness and power of God's words, watchmen stand strong against false teachings to follow the Lord rather than the crowds. They love hard, challenging Biblical truths, and don't pick and choose doctrines they like. They are willing to die to self and stand for truth in the face of persecution because the Lord is worth it! They are on the Lord's side no matter what the cost!

The Watchmen

Chapter 9: No Crossing Over

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Remember Blessings Come From God

- A. Watchmen know their blessings come from the hand of God and they receive them with a thankful and grateful heart. They want to use God's provisions for His purposes. While the world highly regards possessions to bring themselves honor, watchmen seek the high regard of God by handling blessings appropriately.
- B. The 'rich man' of today is the one who has his earthly needs abundantly met and who shows little regard for others, while the 'Lazarus' of today tends to be the person without medical care, food or shelter. Watchmen never know how God might use them to answer a cry for both provisions and salvation truth with the impoverished. They treat all people with kindness and respect knowing they could be in need one day themselves.

2. Watchmen Always Take Hell Seriously

- A. When watchmen visit a cemetery, they are keenly aware that the grave and eternity is ahead of all people. They take Jesus' words and warnings about eternal torment very seriously because He doesn't misrepresent the reality of hell. Watchmen run with this warning telling the lost they are rushing toward eternal suffering if they do not reconcile with God through the cross.
- B. The living need to know that death does not end existence, but merely opens the door to eternity. We need to live this short shot at life wisely with eternity clearly in view. All men must understand there is no second chance for heaven once we die. Polycarp willingly submitted to the earthly flames that brought his death knowing they paled in comparison to the unquenchable flames of eternal punishment.
- C. This account of the rich man in torment describes a place of unquenchable flames, punishment, misery, pain, memory, remorse, thirst, anger and the wrath of God. The rich man is very much alive as evidenced by his fully functioning senses.
- D. Satan, the Antichrist, the False Prophet, fallen angels, Judas Iscariot and all unsaved people whose names are not written in the Lamb's book of life will eventually be in the lake of fire for all of eternity.

3. Watchmen Value the Mercy of God

- A. Today is the day of God's great mercy and grace for salvation which He wants to pour out on all mankind. Those who reject Jesus' provision for sin, forgiveness and mercy are following their own heart's desire that wants to turn away from God and His truth, to worship things, activities or people.
- B. The rich man now realizes how desperately he needs mercy and relief, but will receive none because he fixed his eternal condition through the choices he made while living on earth. He comes to terms with the fact that all hope is lost for all of eternity.
- C. The rich man realizes he didn't seek God while He could be found, but traded his eternity for indulging in wealth without a thought for others. He did nothing for Lazarus sitting right at his gate. God's mercy and forgiveness for redemption are offered while men are living on earth, but will surely come to an end upon death. The 'rich man' makes clear that men should worship God and not possessions or prosperity.

4. Watchmen Warn There is No Crossing Over

- A. Watchmen know that men's eternal destination is fixed once they die and there's no crossing over from torment to salvation. Those in heaven want to cross over to rescue the condemned in suffering and those in hell want to cross over from torment to be with the saved in heaven. Everyone who has a clear picture of hell wants the perishing to be saved.
- B. The rich man becomes quite concerned for his five brothers who are still living. He asks that Lazarus be sent to testify to them so they will not end up in eternal suffering as well. Perhaps this rich man wishes someone had impressed upon him the seriousness of rejecting truth while he was alive on earth.
- C. The rich man, those in heaven, and watchmen on earth all believe in personal evangelism. All who know the gospel should share these life-giving truths with everyone so they too can avoid the inferno of hell. The rich man knew his brothers could choose to listen to God's truth and believe. He knew their eternal destination hadn't been predetermined.
- D. The rich man thinks his five brothers will listen to Lazarus if he returns from the dead and testifies of the torment that awaits those who refuse to repent. Abraham tells the rich man that if his brothers will not listen to the testimony of Moses and the prophets, then they will not listen to someone who returns from the dead. This makes the point that those who refuse to listen to truth today, will also refuse the testimony of Jesus who has returned from death.
- E. Watchmen picture those who have died without Christ begging and crying from hell for someone to go talk to their friends and relatives. Watchmen will heed this call, steel their resolve and lift their voices like a trumpet to carry out this critical mission in life.

5. Watchmen Know Every Person Can Seek God

- A. Every person has the genuine choice and responsibility to seek God with all their heart and soul while they are still living on earth. Sadly, many people choose to seek the things of the world which brings death instead of seeking the things of God that bring life.
- B. Many people deny the facts of the resurrection to deny their need for God's forgiveness. They refuse to come into the light because they love the darkness that hides their sin. If people won't listen to truth, they won't listen to testimony about Jesus rising from the dead. They bolster their unbelief by regarding accounts of the resurrection as fables, when it is they who are living in fiction. Pride keeps them from believing in Jesus and surrendering their lives to God.
- C. God's existence is evident to all men and He holds them accountable to seek Him through truth. God does not force men to come to Him in faith, but allows men to choose their eternal destination through repentant belief or persistent unbelief. Those who choose not to believe will end up in the lake of fire which was created for the devil and his angels.

6. Watchmen Declare Hell is Coming for the Unprepared

- A. Watchmen know the perishing are racing recklessly toward hell and not giving it much thought. Watchmen combat the lies of the world with truth and stand fearlessly against ridicule and insult to point the lost in the direction of Christ for salvation. They don't want anyone to take their last breath without Jesus, and end up in hell for all eternity.

Chapter 10: Time No More

---

Answer Key

1. Watchmen Know the Days Run Short

- A. Watchmen understand that because time is precious and the days run short, they should focus their energies on eternal matters and not earthly pleasures. They realize enough time has been spent chasing after the things of the world and it is high time to wake up from slumber, cast off the works of darkness, and be clothed with truth. Turning from worldly affairs to seek the lost shows they care for the salvation of men and the friendship of God.
- B. God is waiting for the lost to turn to Him in repentance and faith because the ways of the Lord are mercy and abundant pardon. As time runs short, watchmen pick up the pace to prepare men to stand before Him. They firmly warn that God will judge sinners participating in the sin running rampant all around us. While a person may say 'no' to truth with their mouth, the watchman knows they may say 'yes' to truth in their heart.
- C. The Japanese had no idea that day might be their last, just as we don't know what day will be our last. The villagers who heeded the warnings to build their houses above the tsunami water line illustrate the importance of heeding the warnings and preparing for death well before it arrives unannounced.

2. Watchmen Number Their Days Aright

- A. Time is precious and once it is gone, we cannot get it back. Watchmen grasp the gravity of life, choices, heaven and hell, and therefore see time and people in an eternal rather than temporal sense. They want their lives to count for God's purposes, rather than be spent on things that have zero eternal value.
- B. Christians who want to live 'sold out' for God must read what He says and obey what they read. Watchmen repent, pray, study the Bible, give, and step out boldly to share their faith which keeps them on track in living for the Lord. Reviewing how they use their time reveals whether they spend their life for themselves or spend it for the Lord. It also shows where changes can be made to become a fully committed watchman of God.

3. Watchmen Finish Well For The Lord

- A. The Lord Jesus Christ was the perfect watchman who gave out truth up to his very last breath. Other examples of watchmen who finished well for the Lord include the thief on the cross, Peter, Paul, and Stephen, to name a few. Watchmen want their entire life to count for the Lord, warning and giving truth to whomever they can for as long as they can until there is no breath left in them. Thinking about our dying words brings into focus what we value most in life.
- B. Watchmen view men in terms of eternity, either worshiping before the throne of God in heaven or gnashing their teeth in tears of pain and remorse from the bowels of hell. These mental images sharpen the watchman's resolve to rescue as many as possible from an eternity of relentless suffering, torment, regret, darkness and loneliness. Watchmen want all people to finish life well for the Lord, rather than end it in waste and destruction.

4. Watchmen Keep Their Focus

- A. Watchmen know that death comes suddenly for many who are here today and gone tomorrow. Watchmen value each day as a gift from the Lord knowing they and the lost are not promised tomorrow. Each day could be their last, or the last for those they meet, moving them to make every day count for the Lord. They are mindful that they will give an account for how they use their days and so focus on what has eternal value now.

- B. Watchmen, like the apostle Paul, want to stand boldly for Christ but know they need the empowering of the Holy Spirit to do so. Therefore, they pray for one another so that each watchman can stand their ground and speak boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel.
- C. The watchman understands the world mocks the things of God, but he is undeterred. The watchman unflinchingly believes, remains resolute and is steadfast in giving his life for the true gospel that he is unashamed to defend. The watchman knows where he is going because he follows the Lord Jesus all the days of his life, and knows the Lord will take him to heaven to worship before His throne for all eternity.
- D. Watchmen are ashamed of their past sins and the time they wasted chasing worldly endeavors before they were saved, but they are never ashamed of the Lord Jesus Christ. They are thankful for the cross and prove it by spending the rest of their days defending it.
- E. Jesus said that since the world hated and persecuted Him, it will hate and persecute believers who are in the world, but are no longer of the world. The world maligns those who do not behave or think like them. Watchmen will suffer shunning, ridicule, persecution and even death at the hands of men who rebel against God and His truth. The Lord protects His own by taking them safely to heaven to be with Him forever.

5. Watchmen Understand "Time No More"

- A. Watchmen know from the Word of God that one day time will be no more. God will shake this earth in His fierce anger, and the idols that men trusted in will not deliver them in that day. God will destroy the works and people of sin through devouring fire.
- B. The wrath of God will certainly fall on those who suppress the truth in unrighteousness and who turn to worthless idols, both of which lead to indulging in sin. Idolaters reject the truth in order to believe the lie that God will not judge sin, even though watchmen repeatedly warn that God will call men to account. Believers will be sheltered from God's coming wrath that will be poured out on the world for their iniquity, rebellion, and persecution of God's children.
- C. Watchmen passionately love the Lord with their whole heart, mind, soul and strength. This love overflows into the lives of others around them, as did the Baptist preacher John Harper's, who shared the gospel with those drowning as the Titanic sank. His last words were, "Believe on the Name of the Lord Jesus and you will be saved." All watchmen would want their final words to be the same.

6. Watchmen Are Moved To Action

- A. Those who have answered the call to be watchmen of God will take to the streets, their workplaces, neighborhoods, and campuses to speak to strangers, friends, family and coworkers. They will share with them the immense mercy and forgiveness found in the love of God through Christ Jesus, as well as warn them of the unimaginable suffering and torment awaiting those who refuse to take refuge in Christ from the fierce wrath of God coming against rebellious sinners and their sin.
- B. God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked. His watchmen warn the lost that eternal trouble is coming quicker than they realize. You are in the war zone of the battle between God and Satan for the souls of men. Will you join the ranks of watchmen who blow their trumpets long and loud to rescue those on the road to destruction? Remember the days run short and all too soon for the watchman and the perishing alike, it will be "time no more."
